

“RICH AS CAN BE!”

1 CORINTHIANS 4:1-21

NICK VLEISIDES

Welcome to Creekside!

Here are three things you should know about our worship service. As a body, we take communion the first Sunday of the month. On other Sundays, feel free to take communion at the side tables at any time during worship. Elders and prayer team members will be in the back corners of the Worship Center during Worship to pray with you! You may place your offering and comment cards/prayer requests in one of the four baskets located in the worship center anytime before, during or after the service.

Notes:

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD - COLLECTION WEEK NOVEMBER 16TH-23RD

Your shoes may be worn out, but your shoe box could still have thousands of miles to go. This is a hands on project that allows you to send a heart-warming gift to a needy child somewhere in the world. Please join Creekside in this Christmas project. For more info or to volunteer during collection week contact Josh Smith (925)518-5674 / josh_smith@apl.com.

What is Worship?

By Darlene Zschech

You will find throughout the Word, and then continued throughout history, that when a human heart truly encounters the love of God-in essence when the created connects with the Creator-the response is worship, or worthship, as we often say. Worship as a response to revelation is displayed through consecrated lives (Romans 12), through wholehearted songs of love and devotion (the Psalms), and by living lives of love and justice (Micah 6:8). Worship is required not in perfection by man's standards, but in truth, by God's standards. He has never been impressed by offerings that look good, but offerings that are good. As the worship of God continues to gather momentum across the earth, so too does the awareness of His power and presence, along with the understanding of the authority that comes with exalting the name of Jesus over all things. And whether we lead or follow, the ultimate goal of all we pursue in worship is His honor and His glory. So don't get worship and music confused, for what we are involved with is Holy. Not to be confused with marketable tunes that make you feel good.
